

An opening speech for the English month

Good morning teachers and students,

Welcome back to school after the Easter holiday. I haven't made an English speech to you all for quite a while.

Thank you Miss Ng (Winnie), Miss Yeung (Jess), and all English teachers, you all have well prepared and arranged a series of English activities. Thank you for inviting me to deliver a speech today.

I'm here to encourage you all to speak in English as much as you can during the English month.

Therefore, I am going to walk around the school campus during recess, lunch hours and also after school as much as I can. If you bump into me, please feel free to share with me anything you want to for ONE minute. You can obtain one EC card when you finish. Mind you, I only have several EC cards left on hand (less than ten). As my usual practise, allow me to share with you an idiom to end my speech.

Seize the day.

It means to treat everyday as your last day in life, so you will cherish your time to work as hard as you can to make your dream come true.

I hope you will enjoy all English activities and speaking in English. Good luck to you all in getting my EC card! Thank you!
